STANDING RESOLUTIONS

In Regards to Missionary Appropriation

Resolved, That the missionary money appropriated to the different missions in this conference be paid monthly, and that no part be paid except by order of the Conference Superintendent, and if in the judgment of the quarterly conference the missionary fails to faithfully perform his work it shall be in the power of the next conference, upon the recommendation of the Conference Superintendent, to withhold any part of the amount appropriated by this conference. (Adopted 1875.)

In Regards to Reading Course Examinations

Resolved, That the examination in Course of Study shall hereafter be conducted in writing. (Adopted 1882.)

In Regards to Conference Claimants

Resolved, That the amount appropriated to conference claimants be hereafter paid monthly by the treasurer. (Adopted 1890.)

In Regards to Mission Charges

Resolved, That the amount received as a missionary appropriation by mission charges is to be added to the amount of salary received on the charge, and be so reported to the conference chart. (Adopted 1890.)

In Regards to Appropriation From Preachers' Aid Fund

Resolved, That no preacher shall be entitled to an appropriation from the Preachers' Aid Fund until voted to a "Retired Itinerant" relation by the annual conference. All preachers and preachers' widows, deserving aid from this fund, shall make application to the Conference Finance Committee on the blank authorized by the conference, this blank to be signed by the chairman and secretary of the quarterly conference of which the applicant is a member. Blanks shall be furnished applicants by the Conference Superintendent. The Conference Finance Committee shall then consider each case on its own merits. (Adopted 1922.)

In Regards to Letters of Introduction of Removed Members

Resolved, That the Conference Superintendent require all pastors to follow the non-resident members removing from their parishes with letters (not of membership but of introduction), to the nearest pastor so that we shall be able to conserve them to our beloved Zion for Kingdom building. (Adopted in 1930.)

In Regards to Plan of Conducting the Reading Course

It is hereby recommended that the Miami Conference adopt the following plan of conducting the reading course examinations and the passing of licentiates, namely:

(a) That a Reading Course Faculty of five (5) members be named, said faculty to be organized as one faculty with a chairman and standing secretary, the secretary to keep the permanent record as authorized by the Discipline, Chapter IX, Section II, Part II, Item 2, paragraph 3, page 83.
(b) That examinations in each year's course be delegated by the chairman to members of the faculty as agreed upon by the faculty.
(c) That the passing of each licentiate be acted upon by the entire faculty, the faculty to meet during the sessions of the conference at stated times to consider the character and standing of each person pursuing the reading course.
(d) That examinations be conducted at any time during the conference year according to such plans as agreed upon by the faculty. (Adopted in 1930, revised according to action of conference in 1942.)
(e) That the Reading Course Faculty be elected for a term of four years. (Adopted 1933.)

In Regards to the Christian Sabbath

Whereas, various county fairs and the Ohio State Junior Fair have been open on Sunday, automobile races, horse-pulling contests and other sporting events are being continually scheduled and held on Sunday; and this commercial use of the Christian Sabbath interferes with habits of worship and tends to destroy the religious value of the day.

Be it resolved, That we register our protest against such use of the Lord's Day and call upon our people and all other Christians to use their influence against such use of the Sabbath and have no part in sports and events held on this sacred day. (Adopted 1937.)

In Regards to Selection of Place For the Annual Conference Session

Resolved, That the invitations from the churches to entertain the next annual conference session should be given on Tuesday afternoon and the names of the churches placed on the first conference ballot. If no church receives a majority of the votes cast, the two receiving the largest number of votes on the first ballot be placed on the second ballot and the one receiving the largest number of votes be selected. (Adopted 1938.)

In Regards to the Historical Committee

Whereas, our method of electing the historical committee in the past has given the committee and the conference no assurance of continuity or permanency either in its work or its records.

Therefore, be it resolved, that of the three persons who are elected in today's election, the one receiving the highest number of votes be elected for a term of three years, the second highest for two years, and third highest for one year. That, hereafter, one person be elected each year for a term of three years. (Adopted 1939.)

In Regards to the Personnel of the Board of Publication

Be it resolved that the committee charged with the publication of the Miami Messenger be composed of the Conference Superintendent, Conference Recording Secretary, President of the Conference Board of Christian Education and two additional members chosen by ballot. (Adopted 1939.)

In Regards to Historical Papers

We recommend to the Conference Board of Trustees that they provide a suitable place, preferably in the Conference Manse, for the safe keeping of materials of historical value that are or may come into possession of the conference, and that the Conference Superintendent be the custodian of these archives. (Adopted 1940.)

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTIONS APPEAR IN THE 1927 MINUTES AS STANDING RESOLUTIONS BUT NO DATE OF PASSING IS NOTED

1. That hereafter no appropriations be made by the Conference Board of Trustees or the Finance Committee beyond the income on hand or definitely provided for.

2. That no church in the conference shall contract any considerable debt for a new or remodeled building without first consulting the Conference Board of Trustees.

3. That no debt shall be larger than the local church can in the judgment of the Conference Board of Trustees pay off within a reasonable time.

It is recommended that pledges on debts or building funds be taken on a yearly basis.

MIAMI CONFERENCE MUTUAL BENEFICIAL SOCIETY

The Society was founded in 1887. Entrance fee is $1.00, annual dues $1.00 and mortality assessment $2.00. When the balance in the treasury is more than $600.00, mortality assessments after the first one in a conference year will be omitted. All members of Miami Conference and their wives are eligible and are urged to join, by sending the entrance fee to the secretary. The Society pays $200.00 benefit on the death of each member. Any member who has paid into the Society the sum of $200.00 is excused from further payment of mortality assessments. All assessments are payable to the secretary within thirty days of time of notice.

Conference Proceedings

MONDAY EVENING SESSION

The one hundred thirty-third session of the Miami Annual Conference convened in the Oakwood Church with Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., L.L.D., presiding.

Prelude "The Parting Day" by Mueller, played by Mrs. Thomas Lytle, organist of the Oakwood Church.

The congregation joined with the Choir in singing the processional hymn "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

Bishop Clippinger read a portion of the Twenty-Seventh Psalm as a call to worship.

We sang "My Faith Looks Up To Thee."

Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., Superintendent of the Miami Conference led us in the invocation.

The Bishop led the congregation in Responsive Service No. 690 in the Church hymnal entitled "The Hard-won Victory."

The Oakwood Choir under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Dailey sang "God So Loved the World" from the "Crucifixion" by Sir John Stainer.

Bishop Clippinger brought the Communion Meditation on the subject "He Saved Others," using as his text Matthew 27:42, "He saved others, Himself He cannot save."

The Bishop said: "This text was spoken by the enemies of Jesus. Great truths are often spoken in derision. To save others meant a cross for Christ, yet He did not falter. General William Booth, Maude Ballington Booth, Grenfell, Livingston and Kagawa are examples of people who helped others. The Christian life is a life of sacrifice. Holy Communion is a memorial of the sacrifice of Jesus. It is for our salvation. Bigotry, pride, selfishness and narrowness must give way in the Communion Service." The Bishop closed by reading Charles Meigs poem "Others."

The congregation sang "I'll Live For Him."

Rev. E. H. Dailey, host pastor, led us in a prayer of dedication.

Bishop Clippinger read the Communion ritual from the Discipline, being portions of Isaiah 53, Luke 22 and I Cor. 11.

Dr. L. M. Hohn and Rev. E. H. Dailey presided at the Communion table for the Communion service. The elements were distributed by District Leaders, Revs. C. R. Smith, George Duckwall, W. I. Underwood, Harvey Clark and E. R. Turner.

The congregation sang "At the Cross."

Bishop Clippinger led in a prayer of consecration.

We sang "Blessed Assurance."

Bishop Clippinger introduced the Memorial Service. Rev. S. L. Brill read the report of the Committee on Memoirs, indicating that two ministers' wives had passed away during the conference year. (See Report No. 1.)

The Ministers' Quartet sang "Beyond the Sunset." The members of this quartet were Revs. Ivan Jenkins, E. D. Bragg, Murn B. Klepinger and William I. Comfort.

Rev. C. S. Smith spoke in tribute to the life of Mrs. G. R. Jacoby. (See Report No. 2.)

Rev. Harold S. Brown read a tribute prepared by Rev. C. B. Boda to the life of Mrs. J. N. Beckett. Before reading the tribute Reverend Brown spoke briefly concerning his relationship to Mrs. Beckett the last three years of her life. (See Report No. 3.)

Bishop Clippinger spoke words of appreciation for the life of Mrs. Jacoby and stated that Mrs. Beckett was not known to him.

Rev. W. I. Underwood, D.D., led in prayer commending the loved ones of these departed comrades to our loving Father, the God of all comfort.

Bishop Clippinger commended the number of pastors and lay delegates present and asked for their attendance, prayers and interest in the succeeding days.

Rev. E. H. Dailey spoke a word of welcome and made announcements concerning lodging and meals.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION

Mrs. E. H. Dailey played as a prelude "Jesus Calls Us."

The Bishop called the conference to order.

The congregation stood to sing the Doxology. Rev. W. I. Underwood led in the singing.

Rev. L. M. Hohn, Conference Superintendent, led in the invocation.

Bishop Clippinger announced that Doctor Underwood would be our song leader for the day sessions. We sang "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

The devotional message was brought by Bishop A. R. Clippinger on the subject "Jesus and the Will of God." He said, quoting John R. Mott, "The will of God was Jesus' north star." It was a struggle for Jesus to discern the will of God but never a struggle to obey. Jesus' temptations were real, as real to Him as they are to us. When Jesus faced a crisis, He prayed. What would Jesus have me do, is a more important question than what would Jesus do. The Christian should (1) Be willing to obey God rather than men, (2) Search the scriptures for they are a light unto our path, (3) Follow Jesus' example.

We have all the opportunities the Disciples had to know the will of God and then we have more. Those who do the will of God have satisfaction—the satisfaction or reward of "I have done my best."

The Bishop led in prayer.

The Ministers' Quartet sang "Go Tell Someone About Jesus."

The secretary called the roll.

It was voted that the first floor of the sanctuary be the bar of the conference.

Bishop Clippinger appointed the following board of tellers: Rev. Ralph Tinsley, chairman, Rev. Harry Sinks, C. L. Waltman, R. L. Henry, B. M. Shipley, Ralph Wittmeyer, Rev. Harvey Hahn and Joe Teaford.

The secretary read the resignation of D. A. Puterbaugh as trustee of the conference. This resignation was presented because of ill health. It was moved, seconded and carried that the resignation be accepted with regret and that the secretary write a letter to Mr. Puterbaugh expressing these regrets.

It was voted that the secretary send letters of greeting to Revs. J. D. Niswonder and L. B. Venatta.

Rev. George A. Heiss, D.D., Secretary of Preacher Pension; Rev. U. P. Hovermale, D.D., Secretary of Home Missions; Dr. W. G. Clippinger, President emeritus of Otterbein College; and Rev. Roger Montague, evangelistic singer and member of Sandusky Conference, were introduced. Doctor Heiss brought a brief word of greeting.

J. A. Pantle indicated that he would be unable to attend all sessions of the conference because of a death in his family. He stated that he is now 83 years of age and enjoying good health.

Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., read his fifth annual report as Superintendent of Miami Conference.

The report was adopted and the recommendations were referred to the proper committees. (See Report No. 4.)

The Bishop reported on the conferences in Ohio indicating that there will be a net increase in membership in the State and that finances are in the best condition ever. Southeast Ohio, Sandusky and East Ohio paid in full or overpaid their benevolence quota. The conferences were well attended, there was a good spirit, fine fellowship and prospects for an even better year ahead.

Dr. W. I. Underwood read the minutes of the Conference Board of Trustees. It was stated that the debt on the Conference Manse is now $5700.00. Report approved on motion. (See Report No. 5.)

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of actions taken by the Conference Council of Administration. Report was approved on motion. (See Report No. 6.)

Chaplain John J. Price, of the Fifth Corps Area, Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio, spoke of the opportunities and qualifications for men to enter the army chaplaincy. Bishop Clippinger spoke of his work as chairman of the Chaplaincy Committee of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ.

Rev. Roger E. Montague, evangelistic singer of the Sandusky Conference, sang "The Stranger of Galilee." He was accompanied by Mrs. Montague.

The Bishop introduced W. G. Clippinger, D.D., President emeritus of Otterbein College, who spoke concerning the work of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League of which he is president. He said: "The Anti-Saloon League is a child of Protestantism. It is trying to make the world a better place in which to live. America has yet to take adequate precautions against liquor and its attendant evils in this present emergency. Drinking increased by 1/3 in the first three months following Pearl Harbor. America is now spending 5 billions per year for beverage alcohol, as contrasted with 2½ billions for public education.

"What is being done? People are giving money and interest to this cause. The Anti-Saloon League is reaching 160,000 high-school boys and girls with its quiz book program. Half of the territory of Ohio has been voted dry since repeal. About 2 out of 3 elections result in voting out liquor.

"Ministers should preach on this subject, be sympathetic, report local conditions and support the quiz book program."

Rev. O. T. Deever, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Christian Education; J. B. Showers, D.D., Publishing Agent; Mr. S. B. Maeder, Cashier of the Publishing House and D. T. Gregory, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Administration, were introduced. It was stated that Mr. Maeder had been an employee of the Publishing House for 54 years.

Announcement of Committee meetings were made by Revs. J. L. Armstrong, G. R. Jacoby, E. D. Bragg, I. E. Jenkins and J. B. Henry.

Rev. E. H. Dailey made an announcement concerning meals and accommodations.

Revs. Harvey Hahn, J. P. Hendrix and E. H. Nichols were excused from the afternoon session for funerals.

We were adjourned on motion.

Dr. U. P. Hovermale pronounced the benediction.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

We sang "There's Sunshine in My Soul."

W. I. Comfort presided at the organ.

Rev. Robert Copeland read I Corinthians 13 and led in prayer.

We sang "Father Almighty, Grant Us Now."

Rev. C. B. Boda read his report as Conference Treasurer.

Mr. W. C. Reichert read the report of the Auditing Committee which was approved on motion. (See Report No. 7.)

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Treasurer's Report be approved. (See Report No. 8.)

Bishop Clippinger spoke his disappointment that the Miami Conference had not met its benevolence budget in full, and that we had not made a better record in ministerial pension and Otterbein College heating plant funds. He urged that we plan now to pay in full a year hence.

Rev. M. B. Klepinger read the report of the Statistical Secretary together with comparisons and comments. The report was adopted. (See Report No. 9.)

A partial report of the Boundary and Finance Committee was read by the secretary. Report approved. (See Report No. 23.)

Rev. I. E. Jenkins read the report of the Committee on Candidates for the Ministry. Report was approved. (See Report No. 10.)

Rev. Joe Henry read the report of the Committee on Conference Relations. Report approved on motion. (See Report No. 11.)

Ballot for Conference Superintendent was taken. Rev. Frank McEntire was added to the Board of Tellers.

Rev. J. B. Henry presented report of the Board of Christian Education. He spoke of the United Christian Education Advance, a movement begun by laymen representing 40 denominations to meet such needs as reaching the 3 out of every 5 children in the United States who receive no religious instruction, and decreasing Sunday School attendance. He read some interesting statistics indicating that in 1907 the average Sunday School attendance was 50% of the enrollment in Miami Conference. In 1928 the average attendance was 60%. These represent the high and low tides of Sunday School attendance in the conference. The Cradle Roll and Home Departments have decreased in membership the past two decades but prospects are looking up now.

The Sunday School Advance in the United Brethren Church is our part of the Christian Education Advance. It will cover a three year period and will emphasize the four "E's", enrollment, enlistment, enrichment and efficiency. Our goal is every United Brethren Sunday School enrolled in this Advance. He urged every minister to buy the Advance packet. He announced a Christian Education Institute at Germantown on Saturday, September 26 and spoke concerning Christian Education Week.

Dr. L. C. Weimer spoke to the report which was adopted on motion. (See Report No. 11A.)

Rev. R. W. Tinsley read the report of the Board of Tellers indicating that Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., had been elected Conference Superintendent for the sixth year. (See Report No. 12.)

An offering was taken for conference expenses.

Rev. G. R. Jacoby read the report of the Committee on Nominations, Part I. (See Report No. 13.)

Bishop Clippinger presented Dr. D. T. Gregory, Secretary of the Board of Administration, who told of the denominational study book "Faith in the Saving Gospel of Christ." Copies of the book were sold.

Dr. L. M. Hohn introduced Mrs. Clyde Jones, Conference Stenographer.

Revs. Myron Clark and E. M. Larison of the Southeast Ohio Conference and Dr. John W. Owen, Editor emeritus of Sunday School Literature, were introduced.

Dr. J. B. Showers, D.D., Publishing Agent, was presented. He asked the congregation to stand to sing one verse of "I'll Go Where You Want Me To Go." Doctor Showers introduced Dr. L. C. Weimer, Superintendent of the U. B. Building, Mr. S. B. Maeder, Cashier of the Otterbein Press, Drs. J. Gordon Howard, O. O. Arnold and J. W. Owen, Editors of Sunday School Literature, Col. H. E. Meyers and Superintendent Hohn, trustees of the Otterbein Press. Doctor Showers presented Eustace Heckert, J. Arthur Eveland and L. G. Ludwig as Telescope quota winners. He told of the moving picture catalogue which lists religious films for use in churches.

He stated the Publishing House has the best equipment in its history. The U. B. Building is in splendid condition. The U. B. Building has been paying for some years approximately $33,000.00 per year in taxes.

"The Publishing House was founded through faith in the saving gospel of Christ and it was saved through that same faith. The printing plant is now out of mortgage debt. The U. B. Building debt has been greatly reduced."

Col. H. E. Meyers, President of the Board of Trustees of the Publishing House, was presented. He urged for greater emphasis on Sunday

School work and support of the Publishing House. Col. Meyers called Doctor Hohn to the platform that he might read a letter from the Publishing Agent stating that a check for $336.00 for the superannuated ministers and their dependents was being presented to Miami Conference. (See Report No. 14.)

Doctor Hohn accepted the check on behalf of the conference. He indicated that decreased use of U. B. Literature in our Sunday School hampers the work of the Church. Buying U. B. Literature helps to make checks like this one possible in addition to being a valuable aid in church work.

The Bishop announced that the afternoon offering amounted to $42.00.

Invitations for the next session for the Annual Conference were extended by Rev. Louis Odon on behalf of the Southern Hills Church and Mr. W. H. Cassel on behalf of Euclid Avenue Church. It was ordered that the names of these churches be placed on the ballot, Part I.

Revs. Frank McEntire, pastor of the Cheviot Church, C. W. Fetter, pastor of the Residence Park Church and E. E. Burtner, new pastor of the Euclid Avenue Church, were introduced.

The tellers distributed a chart showing amounts paid by the Conferences of the Church on the Ministerial Pension Endowment Fund.

Dr. W. I. Underwood was excused from the sessions on Wednesday for a funeral.

We adjourned on motion with benediction being pronounced by Dr. J. Gordon Howard.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION

The tower chimes called us to worship. The Bishop led in the invocation.

We sang "Lead On, O King Eternal" and "I Need Jesus."

Rev. L. O. Odon read from Ephesians 2, and led in prayer.

The choir of the Antioch Church sang "On Life's Highway." The choir was under the direction of Rev. Milford Ater, student in Bonebrake Seminary. Mrs. Dortha Rhoades was accompanist.

An Offering was lifted for conference expenses.

The Bishop introduced Mr. W. O. Clark, General Church Treasurer, who, he said, was a loyal churchman. Mr. Clark spoke affectionately of his mother who is a member of the Euclid Avenue Church.

Mr. Clark spoke on the subject "The Challenge of the National Otterbein Brotherhood." The Brotherhood movement in our Church is some twenty years old but it received new impetus at the General Conference in 1941. Much progress has been made in the past year. The Otterbein Brotherhood was born in difficult times, it has a difficult task but it will prevail.

Rev. Milford Ater sang "Bless This House" with Mrs. Rhoades accompanying.

Rev. U. P. Hovermale, D.D., Secretary of the Board of Home Missions and Church Erection, was presented and addressed the conference on "The Rural Church." Doctor Hovermale said that over half of the members in our churches and Sunday Schools are in rural areas. Miami Conference has 67 churches in rural areas or small villages. Our denomination has been a rural church yet we have failed to outline an aggressive program for rural churches. The Rural Church Commission is seeking to remedy this situation and has made commendable progress. The country has been the stronghold of Protestantism, if we lose it, the Protestant Church is doomed. The day of rehabilitation following this war will offer great opportunities to the rural church. It demands good ministers, better equipment and a well defined program.

Mr. Clark announced that the first three months of the second year of the present quadrennium shows that the entire denomination has paid 100% of the Benevolence Budget.

We sang "Now The Day Is Over."

Rev. Frank S. McEntire pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

We sang "The Church's One Foundation," and "Tell Me The Old, Old Story," Murn B. Klepinger, song leader, and W. I. Comfort, organist.

Rev. Harold S. Brown gave the devotional address on the subject "Security in a Day of Trouble." He used as his text Hebrews 12:27. Every day has its troubles but eternal things remain unshaken. We need to look beyond those things which can be shaken to those things which are eternal, the Church, the Bible, the power of prayer and God. Much of our uncertainty, fear and trouble come from our disobedience and indifference to God. We face our present condition not because of a lack of a love of God for us but our lack of love for God. Too many of us have the "Faith of our Fathers" and not a faith for ourselves. We can come close to God by prayer. We can ask for no greater security than to be in the hands of God.

We sang "My Faith Looks Up To Thee."

The secretary read the minutes for Monday and Tuesday. The minutes were approved as corrected.

The ballot for conference officials, Part I, was taken.

The Bishop presented Rev. George Heiss, D.D., acting Secretary of Ministerial Pension Bureau, who spoke on the Ministerial Pension Plan. "The Ministerial Pension Plan is the plan for the Church. Ministers ought to join. If the members of the United Brethren Church were tithers there would be no difficulty in raising the endowment fund. We need to see the facts as they are, we have the most liberal plan of any Church, the only plan with non-contributory members, and every church can raise its quota if it really tries." Doctor Heiss illustrated his address with figures on a blackboard and answered questions asked by Dr. P. M. Herrick, Reverends Deever, Ludwig, Nichols and Hovermale.

The Bishop announced that the following churches have paid their Ministerial Pension Quota in full: Otterbein Home; Otterbein Dayton; Pyrmont; High Street; New Hope on the Lockington charge; Oak Street; Liberty; Ithaca; Union City; Zion in the Cincinnati District and Oakwood.

Bishop Clippinger announced that Chaplain Hughes had given him $10.00 in war stamps for Ministerial Pension. He said that if the congregation would provide $8.00 he would add 75 cents and purchase a war bond. He would then turn over to the Conference Treasurer a check for $18.75 to be applied on Ministerial Pension.

Dr. L. C. Weimer spoke in the interest of Preacher Pension and urged the laymen to get under the finances of the church and to support their pastor and church.

Mrs. Elsie Creager, General Secretary of the Bonebrake Seminary Auxiliary, read the report of the Women's Auxiliary for the year ending May 31, 1942. She announced the new officers for the Miami Conference Auxiliary are: President, Mrs. L. O. Shawen, Fort McKinley; Vice President, Mrs. A. D. Cook, Belmont; Secretary, Mrs. B. H. Shroder, High Street; and Treasurer, Mrs. S. G. Ziegler, Fairview. Memberships in the Auxiliary were solicited.

Rev. Harvey Clark presented Dr. Kemper G. McComb, executive secretary of The Church Federation of Dayton and Montgomery County. He addressed the conference briefly. Rev. M. B. Klepinger spoke of the part Rev. Harvey Clark and Dean Ashcraft of Bonebrake Seminary had had in the merger of the Montgomery County Council of Religious Education and the Dayton Council of Churches.

Rev. Walter Shutz, former missionary to Africa, and at present special support secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society, was called to the platform. He addressed this, his home conference, on the subject "Foreign Missions." He urged cooperation in all the work of the Church. He said what we waste in America is more than an African has. He spoke of the personnel and work of the Foreign Missionary Department and the influence of the war upon this work. Now is the time to do something for the missionary program. "Show the light and the people will see the road." Through foreign missions we project the Christian spirit to all parts of the world.

The report of the ballot cast for Conference Officials, Part I, was read by Rev. Ralph Tinsley and the following were declared elected: Recording Secretary, E. D. Bragg; Statistical Secretary, M. B. Klepinger; Treasurer, C. B. Boda; Conference Trustee, term expiring 1943, E. A. Zehring; term expiring 1946, L. M. Hohn and F. W. Lammers; Trustee of Otterbein College, J. P. Hendrix; Stewardship Secretary, O. A. Stutz; Registrar, R. B. Ditmyer; Board of Christian Education, M. B. Klepinger and J. B. Henry.

It was voted that the 1943 session of the Miami Conference be held in the Southern Hills Church.

J. B. Lyter made announcement of the book table.

Rev. E. H. Dailey made announcement concerning the noon meal.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. E. E. Burtner who also prayed the blessing upon the noon meal.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Rev. W. I. Comfort played the organ prelude.

We sang "Sing Them Over Again To Me" and "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

Rev. E. L. Niswander read from I Cor. 13, and led in prayer.

The Ministers' Quartet sang "Keep On Praying."

The Bishop read a letter from Chaplain H. P. Abbott of the 13th Armored Regiment concerning his work.

Rev. L. G. Ludwig read the report of the Evangelistic Commission which was approved. (See Report No. 15.)

Rev. V. H. Allman, D.D., Superintendent of the Sandusky Conference, was introduced and spoke briefly. He said, "I am short of preachers. See me if interested. God bless you and may next year be the best in the history of Great Miami."

Bishop Clippinger announced that he had more than enough money to fill his bond and would turn over $20.00 to the Conference Treasurer.

The Bishop introduced Mrs. Vance Cribbs of Middletown who represented Miami Branch of the Women's Missionary Society. Mrs. Cribbs brought the greetings of the Branch. She said, "We live in a day of change but the ideals of the Women's Missionary Society do not change. These are days to get ready for new opportunities in the future." (See Report No. 15A.)

Rev. Paul Herrick, D.D., was selected to carry greetings to the Branch Meeting of the Women's Missionary Society next April.

Dr. D. T. Gregory presented material concerning World Communion Sunday, October 4. He also distributed a list of Major Emphasis for 1942-43.

Dean C. E. Ashcraft, D.D., was presented. He spoke on Bonebrake Seminary. Miami Conference has always been one of the best friends of the Seminary. We have many problems these days, problems to train and problems to supply the demand for ministers and chaplains. The outlook for Bonebrake this year is very hopeful. We have 100 resident students. The Seminary is one of the larger seminaries of the country and its academic standing is high. He spoke of the circulating library for U. B. ministers.

Miami Conference should have about 15 students enrolled in Bonebrake Seminary. We have but 2. Seminary finances are in good shape. We are operating on a balanced budget and by 1945 all debt will be removed from the Seminary. The Seminary needs a new library building, a worship chapel, an enlarged faculty and scholarship help for students. He reminded us of Seminary Day, October 11. He stated that we should encourage young men to adequately prepare for the Christian ministry.

Bishop Clippinger presented Rev. Roy D. Miller, former pastor of the Euclid Avenue Church and most recent addition to the faculty of Bonebrake Seminary. Reverend Miller occupies the Chair of Missions and Social Ethics.

The Bishop urged us to be more diligent in recruiting young men for the ministry.

President Roberts was introduced who told us that the Bonebrake Ranch in Thomas County, Kansas, had produced a bumper crop of wheat this year which has added materially to the Seminary income. President Roberts also announced that all undesignated bequests to the Seminary would go into a current fund reserve for a new Library Building.

Bishop Clippinger urged that all money for Human Sufferers raised upon World Communion Sunday or other occasions be forwarded through the local church treasurers to Rev. C. B. Boda.

Rev. Russell Ford, Youth Director of the Oakwood Church and a Senior in Bonebrake Seminary, was introduced and sang a song of his own composition "Because He Prayed."

Rev. G. R. Jacoby read the report of Nominating Committee, Part II. Report was adopted and ordered printed. (See Report No. 16.)

Report of the Reading Course Faculty was read and approved. (See Report No. 17.)

The Report of the Committee on Elders Orders was called for but the chairman, Rev. E. S. Comrey, stated there were no candidates for Elders Orders this year. Once more the Bishop indicated the need for diligence in recruiting young men for the ministry.

We stood to sing "More About Jesus."

Mrs. W. H. Cassel, President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Otterbein Home, spoke in behalf of this organization. She asked for a key woman in each church to help the work of the Auxiliary and the Home. "We ask your cooperation, we thank you for what you have done."

Mrs. J. R. Overmiller, Matron of the Home, was introduced and stood to be greeted by the conference.

Rev. J. R. Overmiller, D.D., Superintendent of the Otterbein Home, spoke concerning the home. "I like my job, I think that it is the best in the conference." He spoke of the pleasures and the heartaches of his work, of the spiritual program of the Home and its pastor. He indicated something of the well-rounded program the Home is carrying on. He told of the farm products of the year which were abundant. Our people are reasonably well and happy.

Rev. Lyal Anderson, Pastor of the Otterbein Home, and Mr. W. H. Cassel, Treasurer of the Home, were introduced. Mr. Cassel stated that the debt has been reduced each year for the past ten years. We will go to General Conference along with the Seminary with our debt paid off unless the unforeseen develops. Our mortgage loan is $40,800.00.

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Otterbein Home was announced following adjournment.

Laymen of the conference were asked to meet in the Council Room for election of officers of the Conference Otterbein Brotherhood.

Announcements were made by Reverends Copeland, Witham and Hammon.

The Bishop stated that the Stationing Committee would be seen by appointment only. Also that Rev. Stanley Forkner would show moving pictures on evangelism in the basement from 6:00 to 8:00 P. M.

The nominating committee of the Conference Brotherhood reported the nominees for offices. Mr. J. L. Jones of the Residence Park Church read the report. (See Report No. 18.)

We were adjourned on motion.

Benediction was pronounced by President Walter Roberts.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

Mrs. Thomas Lytle played the prelude.

The congregation sang "We're Marching to Zion" and "Grace Greater Than Our Sins."

Rev. Walter Miranda read the eighth chapter of Romans and led in prayer.

The congregation sang "Tell Me the Old, Old Story."

An offering was lifted for conference expenses.

The Oakwood choir under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Dailey sang "From Egypt's Bondage Come."

Rev. O. T. Deever, D.D., Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education, spoke on "The Gospel and Christian Education." He said that the gospel is an adequate remedy for what ails the world. Hate, greed, selfishness and economic injustice cause most of the world's ills. The Christian Education Advance was entered into because (1) The present program of Christian Education is not adequate, (2) Our sectarian spirit, (3) Our failure to use up-to-date methods, and (4) Irregular attendance in Sunday School.

We sang "Sun of My Soul."

A meeting of the Boundary and Finance Committee was announced for Thursday noon.

Rev. C. W. Brewbaker, Ph.D., spoke on "Evangelism for Today." "I have great joy in the ministry. If I had my life to live over, I would do the same things only I would try to do them better. Evangelism is that process by which we lead people into a knowledge of Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord of life. People need a Saviour now. Evangelism needs to recover the power of intercessory prayer. There are many methods of Evangelism, use the method which will best win people to Christ."

Doctor Brewbaker pronounced the benediction.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The session opened by Bishop Clippinger asking us to sing "The Haven of Rest."

Dr. W. I. Underwood led the singing. Rev. W. I. Comfort presided at the organ.

The devotional address was given by Rev. Philip Deever, M.A. He spoke on the subject "A Sense of What Is Vital," using as a text Phil. 1:10. "We have lost our sense of what is vital, we need to make discriminating distinctions. We need perfect love and spiritual common sense which is love plus knowledge. A vital religion directs us from form to force, from material riches to spiritual wealth, from the mass to the man and from a near-sighted to a far-sighted view of things. We are apt to turn away from Jeremiah and Jesus to Kaltenborn and Thomas."

The quartet sang "God is Waiting In The Silence."

Mr. William Allen, a member of the local church, spoke a word of testimony in which he urged us to preach the saving gospel of Christ.

The Bishop called to the platform Dr. Paul Herrick and Dr. E. M. Tate, a Presbyterian missionary in Thailand who spoke briefly. He said, "The Church goes on. You can't kill Christianity with a war. We can do our greatest service as a world-wide gospel—a universal gospel for all men."

Dr. S. S. Hough, D.D., Secretary emeritus, was presented. He spoke briefly, saying, "Since retiring I have not been lonely. I have my memories, my friends, my research, my interest in life. You ministers and laymen have my deepest sympathy and prayer. Our task is to see that love and the principles of Christianity, rather than physical force, control the world."

Rev. B. S. Arnold, D.D., Superintendent of the East Ohio Conference, was introduced and spoke briefly. Dr. B. F. Lamb, Secretary of the Ohio Council of Churches and Religious Education, and Professor Horace Troop, of Otterbein College, were also introduced. Each of these men was voted advisory relations in the conference.

Secretary called the roll and read the minutes. The minutes were approved. The bishop read a letter from Rev. J. D. Niswonder stating that this was the first time in 42 years he was unable to respond to roll call.

Professor Horace Troop was presented and spoke on Otterbein College. "I am glad to come to Miami Conference for I have many friends and acquaintances here. Miami Conference has made headway but has not paid its Heating Plant Quota in full. Otterbein College will suffer a 10 to 15% decrease in enrollment this year which is not bad considering world conditions.

"Otterbein College will be 100 years old in 1947. The Centennial Program is being planned. Please keep this in mind when thinking of Otterbein.

"I teach economics and political science. Naturally I am interested in the Social Gospel which is essentially a change in emphasis rather than a new gospel. The times through which we are passing are apt to destroy and disrupt institutions which we have regarded as fundamental. The Church has a great job today. Keep truth, love and friendship alive. After the war there will be class consciousness and the need for racial adjustments, the ideal of Brotherhood is being forced upon us. The Church must be alert and keep men calm, poised and sensitive to those things which endure."

Rev. J. P. Hendrix read the report of the Rural Church Commission. Rev. A. P. Peden spoke to the report. Report was adopted. (See Report No. 19.)

The ballot for Conference Officials, Part II, was taken.

The Bishop presented Dr. B. F. Lamb who spoke on the "Council of Churches and Christian Education." "The world at its worst—and the world is in trouble today, and it may become worse—needs the Church at its best. What are we doing to put the Church at its best? I am afraid we have not done enough. What is wrong? Our message is adequate, therefore, our method must be wrong. We need to lay greater emphasis upon the word 'United.' The Ohio Council of Churches needs your support. It is the force of united Protestantism in Ohio. We can make no significant progress without your support."

Bishop Clippinger announced a meeting of the Boundary and Finance Committee at 12:45. It was announced that the Ministers' Wives' Luncheon would be held this noon.

Rev. A. C. Witham called a meeting of the Resolutions Committee for the noon hour. Mr. John Lyter made an announcement concerning the book table.

W. C. Reichert made a supplementary report of the Auditing Committee. Report was adopted. (See Report No. 7.)

Rev. E. H. Hammon extended an invitation to visit the newly reconstructed Beavertown Church following the meeting of the Miami Conference Mutual Benefit Society this afternoon.

Benediction and blessing upon the noonday meal were pronounced by Dr. B. S. Arnold.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Rev. W. I. Comfort played an organ prelude.

Dr. W. I. Underwood led in singing "Marvelous Grace," and "Take Up the Tangled Strands."

Rev. G. D. Lether read from John 17, and led in prayer.

Rev. J. A. Pantle was introduced as one of the older ministers of Miami Conference. The Bishop spoke his appreciation for the life and work of this man—he was a great evangelist.

Reverend Pantle said, "I was a song leader, I liked good horses. I am a Hoosier now by force, not by choice." He told some of his experiences and recited original poetry. He sang " 'Tis So Sweet."

Mr. J. P. Sebold, a member of the Antioch Church for 44 years, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Benzing were presented to the conference. It was stated that Mr. Sebold would be available as an evangelistic singer and that Mr. Benzing had been a communion steward in the Hamilton, Ninth Street Church for 50 years without missing a single Communion service.

A quartet from the Otterbein Chapel Church sang two numbers which were greatly appreciated by the conference. The members of this quartet were Orville Hoff, Robert Gilfillon, Chester Pierson and Harold Oliver. Miss Barbara Jean Hoff was accompanist.

Rev. E. L. Niswander read the report of the Committee on Pastor's Successor's Records. Report was approved. (See Report No. 20.)

The Bishop stated that the conferences of Ohio would show a net increase of between 600-700, making a total of approximately 92,000 United Brethren in the state of Ohio.

Dr. J. Gordon Howard, Chairman of the Committee on the Church and Military Service for the United Brethren Church, told of the work of the committee. He stated that the work dealt with the conscientious objectors of the Church, the boys in service and United Brethren Chaplains. There are approximately 15,000 U. B. men in the army and navy. There are 7-10 conscientious objectors. We have 15-16 Chaplains and more are planning to go. He spoke of the literature for men in service. More funds are needed for such literature, 52 pastors in Miami Conference have ordered this literature, 35 have not. (See Report No. 21.)

The Otterbein Chapel quartet sang "Kneel at the Cross."

Rev. J. Stuart Innerst, D.D., spoke on "A Just and Durable Peace." He said, "We fought a war to end war in 1918 and we won, but we lost the peace. This makes the subject of this address pertinent at this time." He spoke of the Malvern Conference and the Conference of the Federal Council's Commission on a Just and Durable Peace which met at Delaware. He read the 13 principles which the Delaware Conference suggested as a basis of a just and durable peace. (See Report No. 22.) Doctor Innerst presented in a clear, concise and non-captious manner the individual, national and international attitudes which we must face if these principles are to prevail. He closed by telling of Helen Keller's desire for World Brotherhood and Peace.

Bishop Clippinger asked Doctor Frank to lead us in prayer for peace. This was a moving moment, the Spirit of God was present. It was a time which will be long remembered.

A quartet of intermediate girls from the Wagner Chapel Church sang "Abide With Me" and "The Prayer Perfect." Members of the quartet were Vera Appenzeller, Evelyn Laub, Wilma Robinson and Ann Underwood.

Doctor Innerst told of some pamphlets on the subject of "A Just and Durable Peace" which could be secured from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and the Christian Century Press.

Rev. G. R. Jacoby read a statement of the work of the Historical Committee.

Report of the Boundary and Finance Committee was read by Rev. Joe Hendrix. Report was approved. (See Report No. 23.)

Rev. Roy D. Miller read the report of the Policy Committee which was adopted as amended. (See Report No. 24.)

Rev. R. W. Tinsley read the report of the Board of Tellers in the ballot for election of conference officers, Part II. The Bishop declared the following persons elected: Ohio Council of Churches, W. I. Underwood, Wm. K. Messmer, J. E. Teaford, G. T. Riegle, Mrs. Jesse Haines and Mrs. Edna Burkett; Board of Publication, Harvey Hahn and M. B. Klepinger; Evangelistic Commission, L. G. Ludwick, H. S. Brown, Ira Clark, Philip Deever and L. O. Odon; Historical Committee, S. L. Brill; Representatives to Otterbein College Training School, Harvey Hahn and Philip Deever; Anti-Saloon League Trustees, J. L. Armstrong and Walter Miranda; Judicial Committee, E. S. Comrey; Rural Life Commission; J. P. Hendrix, George Duckwall, C. E. Fryman, W. I. Comfort and I. E. Jenkins; Bonebrake Seminary Commission, E. R. Turner, J. S. Innerst, E. D. Bragg, Ralph Tinsley, Clifford Benzing, Fred Lammers, Paul Herrick, C. A. Funkhouser and C. R. Smith.

Rev. Don Falkenburg, Jr., spoke on "The Bible Meditation League." He told of the work among the men in service. The League has two aims, to provide individual Bible study outlines and to give Chaplains material to be read in Bible Study groups. He told of the "Buddy Study Kits." "We have a great opportunity but we must plan for the future. We must lay the foundation now that the superstructure may arise in the future."

Rev. R. B. Ditmyer read the Report of the Conference Registrar. Report was approved. (See Report No. 25.)

The Resolutions Committee Report was read by Rev. A. Glen O'Dell. Revs. Ludwick, Klepinger and Peden spoke to the report. An amendment was voted that conference in 1943 begin on Tuesday morning and that the Communion and Memorial Services be held on Tuesday evening. The Report as amended was adopted. (See Report No. 26.)

The Secretary presented a Resolution concerning Standing Resolutions which was adopted.

The minutes for Thursday were approved without reading.

A meeting of the Board of Publication and the Mutual Benefit Society was called following adjournment.

Mr. John L. Jones read the nominees for the Conference Otterbein Brotherhood. It was voted that the Secretary cast the ballot to elect these officers. (See Report No. 18.)

The Bishop addressed his closing remarks to the conference in which he commented upon the fine spirit of this session. He urged that there be no discord in local churches in these days. Lay aside little differences and give attention to larger issues. We enter upon a new year with timidity rather than temerity.

I have a heavy heart because some young men seem to be more interested in earning a salary than in preaching the gospel. Let's not forget our calling. A pastor's first duty is to preach good sermons. Pastors, be judicious. Laymen, have responsibility too. An official board can make or break a pastor.

Dr. L. M. Hohn expressed his gratitude for the confidence expressed in his election as Superintendent for another year. He said that he was presenting each pastor with a pocket diary as a token of good will. He spoke of the display of bulletins in the Council Room. He said that he had been able to enjoy more sessions of this conference than any since his election and said that every man who moves this year and every church which has a change in pastor knows it now. He thanked Bishop Clippinger for his help. "I am counting on every man to outline his work that we may have a better report next year, than this."

Rev. C. B. Boda announced that the Conference Treasurer's books would close for September two weeks from today.

Motion was made that the 133rd session of the Miami Annual Conference adjourn sine die at the close of the evening session. Motion carried.

We stood to sing the Doxology.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. M. Hohn.

THURSDAY EVENING SESSION

The closing session of the annual conference began with Mrs. Thomas Lytle, organist of the Oakwood Church, playing as a prelude "Sparklets" by Miles.

Rev. L. M. Hohn, D.D., superintendent of the conference, presided.

The congregation joined with the choir of the Oakwood Church in singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers" as a processional hymn.

Rev. E. H. Dailey led in the prayer of invocation.

The Oakwood choir, under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Dailey, sang, "Hark! Hark! My Soul."

Rev. Ralph W. Tinsley read the forty-second Psalm and led in prayer.

An offering for conference expense was lifted. Mrs. Lytle played Reuter's "Forest Vesper" as an offertory.

Doctor Hohn presented Bishop A. R. Clippinger, D.D., L.L.D., who brought us a challenging message on the subject "The Christian Religion and World Cataclysm." The Bishop used as his text, Isaiah 26:3. He said that poetry and sermons are good indices of the age in which they are prepared. The Christian is faced today with two idealogies, the temporal, political or material over against the spiritual or the Kingdom of God. These are hard to harmonize but they cannot be avoided. The Christian associates with two kinds of people, those who are victims of circumstance and those who are victors over circumstances. The Christian has two opportunities, to be good or evil; pure or unclean. This present catalysm has brought to the front our rights and our privileges—our duties and our responsibilities.

In times of tension it is difficult to keep bitterness and hatred from our hearts. War becomes more terrible with each generation. The parable of the Good Samaritan remains the greatest of Jesus' parables. I am my brother's keeper and I cannot evade my responsibility. We give to build the war machine, why should we not give to relieve suffering?

Out of this world cataclysm and disorder there will come a better world in which to live. The order of a new day MUST be built upon Christian Principles. The conferences upon a Just and Durable Peace and the sentiment for Peace are signs of a better world order. The tide is out now but there are evidences that the tide is turning. Unless we improve our opportunities there will be a darker night than the present.

The Bishop closed by pleading for ministers and laymen alike to strengthen the ties of the local church. It is a time for heart-searching, a time for every man to do his duty. Let us do more praying.

The congregation sang, "Lead On, O King Eternal."

The Bishop read the report of the Stationing Committee. (See Report No. 27.) He prefaced the reading of this report with a word of appreciation for the work that Doctor Hohn had done preceding the annual conference. He also stated that there were fewer changes in pastoral assignments this year than for several years.

The one hundred thirty-third session of the Miami Annual Conference was closed with a benediction by Bishop Clippinger followed by a choral benediction by the Oakwood Choir.

This was a delightful session of Annual Conference featured by fine fellowship. Our physical surroundings were delightful and the people of the Oakwood Church were splendid hosts. The weather was hot but the deliberations were mild and in good spirit. Reports indicated that it was a year of financial gains. In spite of the war and world conditions there was present a contagious faith in the "Goodness of God." An unusual spirit of comradeship prevailed.

Bishop A. R. Clippinger presided with his usual dignity, grace, fairness and good spirit. Dr. L. M. Hohn further endeared himself to members of the conference by his wise and considerate leadership. We left the conference challenged to go back to our individual churches to work to make the Church a vital force in our world and life.

Emerson D. Bragg, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

The cheapest thing today in the eyes of many governments is human life. Everywhere the flower of young manhood is being drafted and trained to kill and be killed.

The Miami Conference honors itself by giving first place in its program to Holy Communion and a memorial service in which we recognize the sacred value of human life.

The ministerial roll has been kept intact during the past year. Yet the invader has been nigh in that he has called two ministers' wives home to dwell with God: Mrs. G. R. Jacoby and Mrs. J. N. Beckett. Fitting tribute will be given later in this program by ministers who knew them best.

The lives of many have been enriched by their labors of love among us. Though we see them no more here, yet we do not feel them gone from us. In the sacred portals of heart and mind they live. They live in their many Christian deeds and words. Their lives are being relived in the life of youth, that knew them.

We believe in the resurrection of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, and because He lives they live also.

To the relatives and friends, we share your sorrow and as a conference we extend to you our heartfelt sympathy. May the blessing of an ever present God be your portion and may each that remain so live that we too shall live with them.

Respectfully submitted,
S. L. BRILL

Report No. 2

TRIBUTE TO MRS. MAUDE JACOBY

Though some of the saints of God are in seemingly obscure places the spiritual life of those saints is by no means obscured. For the richness of their life and experience is constantly flowing forth in rivers of living water such as Jesus described, when He said, "out from within them shall flow rivers of living water. This spake He of the Spirit, which they that believe on Him should receive." Mrs. Jacoby was one of these saints. She knew God. She was possessed of the Spirit of God. Though she was not so well known throughout the conference, as some other ministers' wives are known, her life was a benediction to all who knew her and had fellowship in her home.

Her spiritual life heritage reminds us of that which Paul wrote of Timothy, when he said, "When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also." For she, too, had a rich spiritual heritage in her godly grandmother Matthews, and in her mother Mrs. Schiering.

Mrs. Jacoby was the daughter of William and Izeta Schiering, and was born near Bevis, Ohio, on August 23, 1889, and departed this life at her home in Sulphur Grove, on December 31, 1941, at the age of 52 years, 3 months, and 8 days.

On August 15, 1916, she was united in marriage with Rev. George Jacoby, and together they labored and shared the privileges and joys and burdens of the service to which they were called by their Lord. Very early in life Mrs. Jacoby was converted to Christ and His way of life, and was a faithful follower until death. She was the mother of five children, Mrs. Melba Moore, of Dayton; Donald, who is now in the service of our county, and Charlotte, Junior, and Lloyd, who are at home.

Mrs. Jacoby was a devoted Christian worker, a lover of her home and family, and a boon companion to her husband. The last two years of her life were spent in an ever-increasing affliction which resulted in her death. A brief service was held in the parsonage at Sulphur Grove, where Dr. L. M. Hohn brought the message of comfort to the sorrowing family and friends. The writer had charge of the service and delivered the message in the church at Bevis. Her body rests in the beautiful burial grounds adjoining the church there.

The night cometh and also the morning. Sorrow is past, resurrection awaits, and then cometh the joy. When the Sun of Righteousness arises with healing in His wings mortality will be swallowed up in life, and the faces of those who have gone on before, having died in the faith, will be seen in the beauty and glory of Christ, greeting those who long for their presence. May God's blessings continue to fall upon brother George and the children, and all others who were near and dear to her, until that happy time of meeting.

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. J. N. BECKETT

By a friend and former pastor, C. B. Boda

I first came to know Mrs. Beckett 37 years ago, when I became pastor of Willey Memorial Church in Cincinnati, where I found the Beckett family active in the church. Brother Beckett was not in the active ministry just then, but during my five years' pastorate there I found them faithful and regular Christians of unusually high standards, holding the respect and esteem of the entire church and of the community as well. They were the kind of members that every pastor learns to prize so highly, and that he carries with grateful appreciation in his memory as the years come and go.

After becoming Conference Treasurer and returning to Dayton, I was more or less in contact again with these friends, having been in their home several times before Brother Beckett's death, and Mrs. Beckett has also been in our home. As age came on, she was losing some of her faculties, especially that of eye-sight and while we may call her death a tragic one, resulting the day following from injuries received in an automobile accident, we cannot regret that she could go so soon and not have to lie for a long while in a helpless condition.

I have felt that if there are some places in heaven higher than others, she would have a high place, because she believed and thought and lived so that she would just naturally pass to such a place.

While she was probably not known to most of the present Conference membership, we do ourselves honor by honoring her—the faithful wife of a minister called of God, and herself a faithful, high-standard Christian to the very end.

Report No. 4

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

To our Beloved Bishop and fellow workers in the body of Christ: Greetings—We have written Finis to the work of 1941 and 1942, and now are assembled to review that which we have done in the Lord, and strengthen our stake for further advance.

I. Our churches have wrought well in building the kingdom of our God.

On the material side, buildings have been redecorated, remodeled, repaired and property has been purchased with all projects well financed. The Southern Hills and Beavertown churches have reconstructed their church houses and New Madison is in the midst of constructing their church building now. Waterhouse, Union City, Dunlap, Oakwood, Verona, New Haven, Mt. Airy, Olivet and Zion (in Cincinnati District) have repaired or redecorated their churches. The Eaton and West Sonora churches were damaged by fire during the year. Both churches were covered with insurance and the damages have been taken care of in prompt order. Otterbein Chapel, Rosewood, Lockington, Miamisburg, Rossburg Circuit, Troy Street, Willey Memorial and Germantown have repaired their parsonages. Otterbein Dayton has purchased a new parsonage and Sunday School House. Springboro has relocated its parsonage, by selling the old one and purchasing the house at the side of the church. Clough has built a new parsonage which takes its place along side of the better parsonages of the Conference. Farmersville has purchased an Orgatron for its church and Johnsville has installed a Hammond electric organ. The Oak Street, Hartford Street and East Dayton churches have paid out on their debts and suitable services have been conducted. The Clayton church has paid out on its parsonage debt.

The Otterbein Church (Dayton) has played the part of the big brother to the West Elkton church, Oak Street to Olivet and High Street to Harshman. This is a thing we have not seen the like of in Miami Conference.

Our Conference has 109 churches, 75 parsonages, 108 Sunday Schools, 111 Christian Endeavor societies, 95 Women's Missionary societies, and 57 Otterbein Guilds, 84 Ladies' Aid societies, and 21 Brotherhoods. Ninety-seven churches received members, while 12 received none. Our good folks have given $87,589.00 for all benevolences and $469,638.00 for all purposes. This shows the keen interest they have in the whole program of the Kingdom.

On the spiritual side of the work we have done well. A few churches have maintained prayer meetings. All of our churches have been regular to keep up their worship services and Sunday schools. Christian Endeavors, Women's Missionary societies, Otterbein Guilds, Ladies' Aids and Brotherhoods have been giving fine contributions in time and service in doing their part in the spiritual work of the church. Evangelistic meetings have been held with marked success and show that 1332 have been led to accept Christ as Saviour and Lord, 1565 have united with our churches, 1039 have been lost, leaving the membership of the Conference at 28,629, showing a net gain of 586. The various methods of evangelism have been employed in the efforts of the year. Much fine work has been done that only eternity will be able to report. All honor to the faithful laymen who have stood by their pastors, working shoulder to shoulder with them.

II. Our ministers have done good work that is of lasting quality. They have preached the Gospel in all its purity and power; visited the sick, the discouraged and sorrowing. They have made 40,817 pastoral calls. It is interesting to note that one student pastor leads the whole Conference in the number of calls made during the year. These same pastors have preached 6,908 sermons, baptized 1,120 persons, conducted 906 funerals, married 704 couples, and read 2,261 books. All this has been done in the effort to build the kingdom of God into the heart life of the world.

Early in this Conference year Rev. W. G. Peck resigned the Lewisburg Church that he might take up the work of a chaplain in the army, and Rev. Charles Messmer was appointed; on Monday after Easter Rev. E. L. Smith resigned the Hartford Street Church and Rev. Roger Montague was appointed; early in August Rev. Lloyd Houser resigned the Castine and Weaver Station churches and Rev. Vernon Overturf was appointed. All these men have taken hold of the work and have rendered acceptable service in these fields.

Death has entered but one pastor's home in the year. He came to the home of Rev. George R. Jacoby and bore away the wife and mother from the home. Death also took Mrs. Beckett who was the widow of the late Rev. J. N. Beckett. Appropriate services have already been held in memory of these who have fallen.

That wonder bird, the stork, came and left precious bundles at the homes of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Fetter, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Comfort, Rev. and Mrs. Philip Deever, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Quick, Rev. and Mrs. Merle Blinn and Rev. and Mrs. Robert McCannon.

The experiment of loaning pastors to Home Mission churches for revival meetings worked out very well. Rev. E. D. Bragg was evangelist at our church in Lawrence, Kansas, and rendered valuable service which was highly appreciated.

III. Many of our churches have taken a keen interest in our boys who are in camps and on army duty abroad. Our records will show that $1,022.00 have been given to help the army chaplains better finance their program. It is a rare thing to be in a Sunday School, worship service or prayer meeting where our young men are not remembered in the prayers of the people.

IV. Quarterly Conference licenses were renewed to: James Weaver of East Dayton; Howard James of Waterhouse; Paul Reber of Belmont; David Woodburn of First Church, Dayton; Clifford Stearns of Mt. Airy; Harold Halderman of New Madison; C. C. Potts of Union City; Kenneth Kraft of First Church, Dayton; Rudolph Thomas of First Church, Dayton; Walter Racke of Newport, Ky.; Connie O'Brien of Greenville; Harold Messmer of Newport, Ky.; and Quarterly Conference licenses were granted to H. A. Parker of Union City, and Bruce Herrick of First Church, Dayton.

The following have been recommended to the Annual Conference by their Quarterly Conferences: Rev. Harold Halderman of New Madison; Mrs. Mary Bierly of Lewisburg, and Rev. Clifford Stearns of Mt. Airy.

Rev. C. W. Fetter comes with his transfer from Virginia Conference and Rev. Frank S. McEntire comes from Erie Conference, and Rev. E. E. Burtner from Southeast Ohio Conference.

V. Your Superintendent's activities. It was my opportunity to attend the Homecoming at Union City and Newport, and to participate in the Centennial celebration at Otterbein Chapel. I took part in the dedication of Southern Hills church, and the parsonages at Clough and Springboro. It was my honor to have part in receptions at Germantown and Beardshear; to attend four wedding anniversary occasions; that of Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Ludwick, Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Dailey and that of Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Hendrix.

Your superintendent assisted in two revival meetings, one at Castine and one at Mt. Airy. I addressed two Town and Country Pastors meetings of Montgomery County; attended four meetings of the Hamilton-Middletown and Cincinnati Districts, met in five meetings of the Northwest District, three meetings of the Northeast District and two meetings of the Dayton District. It became my duty to attend seven meetings of the Otterbein Home Executive Committee, and eight meetings of the Executive Committee of the Otterbein Press Trustees. I have had part in four Conference Council meetings, the Board of Administration and the Association of Conference Superintendents. It fell to me to have a part in planning for the Mid-Year District Conference at Barberton, Ohio. I met twice with persons interested in forming a new church in Osborn, Ohio, and once with persons interested in a second church in Springfield, Ohio. The State Pastors' Convention, three committee meetings of the State Pastors and Religious Education Association claimed a part of my time. Then meetings with individuals and groups were many. I have held 174 Quarterly Conferences, have given 168 devotional addresses, preached 55 times, conducted four funerals, and solemnized five weddings. Outside of the foregoing activities I have taken out eight days for vacation.

In conclusion I would not be true to you or to myself if I did not speak my appreciation to Bishop Clippinger for his untiring patience, his counsel and cooperation, and to you ministers and laymen for your spirit and good will, your cooperation and help as I have tried to do my part as your superintendent.

Yours in Him,

L. M. HOHN

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

At the beginning of the conference year we reorganized by electing the following officers: Chairman, Dr. L. M. Hohn; Vice Chairman, Dr. D. T. Gregory; Treasurer, Rev. C. B. Boda; Secretary, W. I. Underwood.

During the year the board approved the plans for repairs and addition to the Southern Hills Church, and granted the Church the privilege of borrowing an amount, not to exceed $14,000.00 to be secured by mortgage on Church property, including Church building and parsonage.

It was agreed that churches receiving aid through the Board of Trustees should raise an amount not less than $2.00 on principle, for each $1.00 given by the Conference, except in cases where previous arrangements would conflict with the order.

Appropriations were made to: Beardshear, $200.00; Cheviot, $200.00; Clifton, $200.00; College Hill, $700.00; Oakwood, $600.00; Drexel Park, $100.00; Newport, $100.00; Springboro, $100.00.

The treasurer was authorized to pay $200.00 on the Conference Manse. It was also agreed to paper the manse, and to furnish paint for necessary improvements.

In our meeting on September 14, yesterday, we inspected the Conference Manse and grounds. At this time we voted $54.23 for materials used in making repairs. We also voted to pay $500.00 on Manse debt.

REPORT OF THE MIAMI CONFERENCE COUNCIL OF ADMINISTRATION

The Miami Conference Council of Administration met in the U. B. Building on December 12, 1941; at the Belmont Church on March 10, 1942, and at the Sabina Camp Grounds on June 17, 1942.

The following actions were taken:

1. Bishop Clippinger was elected Chairman, Dr. L. M. Hohn, associate chairman and Joe Hendrix, secretary.

2. Reports of officers were approved in each meeting.

3. Ministerial relief to the amount of $100 was granted to Mrs. W. C. Andreas.

4. Conference Superintendent was instructed to arrange for a mid-year conference to be held at the Belmont Church.

5. The resignation of Mr. C. A. Demmit as president of the Miami Conference Brotherhood was accepted and Glenn Massman was elected to fill the vacancy.

COMPARISONS AND COMMENTS ON THE STATISTICAL REPORT

All totals in the section on Finances have been made to conform to the report of the Conference Treasurer. Pastors' reports to the statistical secretary were made only in "dollars" while reports to him were made in "dollars and cents."

Membership and Attendance. A slight increase is noted in membership, in average attendance and in the number of contributing members. Nevertheless, the average church attendance at the main worship service was only 32% of the membership.

14% of the membership is non-resident. A study of this non-resident problem across the years reveals that nearly all these people are gradually lost to the Church and the Kingdom, unless they early find a church home in their new community. We count this a challenge to every pastor to report promptly the names and addresses of his members to the pastor in the new communities where they move.

Christian Education. Once again there is a decrease in Sunday School enrollment and attendance. This decline has been in evidence for many years past and the average attendance the past year was lower than at any time for the past five or six years. Yet the Sunday school continues as the greatest evangelistic field of the Church. More Sunday School pupils united with our churches last year than for several years.

This year there is again an increase in the number of pupils in vacation church schools and in catechetical classes. Thirty-five churches held catechetical classes during the past twelve months, an increase of seven over the preceding year. Thirty-eight churches held vacation church schools, an increase of nine over the preceding year. Also, more of our Sunday school leaders were enrolled in Leadership Training classes.

The enrollment in young people's societies declined slightly, while the number in Intermediate and Junior organizations increased.

Literature. Subscriptions to The Religious Telescope show a 20% increase, and to the Miami Messenger a 6% increase. A condition that will concern our Publishing House is the trend toward the use of literature other than that of our own denomination. The report shows a decline in the use of United Brethren literature and a 30% increase in the use of other literature; and last year showed an increase over the preceding year.

Finances. Pastors' salary contracts were increased $6,200.00, but four churches did not pay their pastors in full by August 31st. Nineteen churches paid their pastors more than they contracted for. $8,600.00 more was spent for church and parsonage repairs the past year than in the preceding year. Total expenses of the local churches increased $29,000.00 over a year ago, and $35,000.00 more than two years ago. Total giving for all purposes is $33,361.00 ahead of last year and $71,138.00 ahead of two years ago.

There was less paid in church and parsonage debts, but more paid for new churches and parsonages. Notwithstanding several new building projects during the past year, the total church and parsonage debt is $2,214.00 less than reported a year ago. Twenty churches report no "balance in treasuries" while all the other pastors reported $25,127.00 greater balance than last year.

All fulltime pastors are members of the churches or charges they serve.

MURN B. KLEPINGER,
Statistical Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

Mrs. Mary L. Bierly and Clifford Stearns appeared before the committee on candidates for the Ministry and after a thorough examination we found that they have met the educational requirements as of the Discipline and that they are both sound in Doctrine.

We therefore recommend that they be received into the Annual Conference.

Report No. 11A

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

During the year the Board accomplished all the objectives stated in last year's report. One change in the objectives was made, that being the combination of the Leadership Training School for Young People and the Ministers' Retreat at Sabina. The search for a permanent camp site continues, and the Board has placed $100 in a camp fund toward purchase of grounds when a satisfactory location is found.

Items of business not stated in the objectives were (1) Recommendation of Miss Martha Miltenberger of Middletown to receive for the second time the Christian Endeavor Scholarship at Otterbein College; (2) Aid in the amount of $60 to the Wagner Chapel Church in bearing its share of support for the week day religious instruction in the school of its community; (3) Contribution of $107, which jointly with the Seminary vesper offerings, enables Miami Conference to give $250 to the Bonebrake Seminary Scholarship Endowment Fund.

Objectives for the year include (1) The Fourth Annual Christian Education Institute on Sept. 26 at Germantown, (2) The Sixth Annual One-Day Youth Conference on November 27 at Euclid Avenue, (3) The Third Annual Adult and Children's Workers Camp at Sugar Grove on a date to be announced, (4) The Leadership Training School for Young People and the Ministers' Retreat June 14 to 18 at Sabina.

The major objective of the year is to be the participation of our Sunday Schools in the United Brethren Sunday School Advance which is a part of the United Christian Education Advance in which forty denominations representing over ninety percent of Protestant Churches in North America are engaging. The Christian Education Institute on September 26 will be devoted to plans for this Advance.

That we in Miami Conference need give serious attention to our Sunday Schools is evidenced by the following statistics gathered from the records of former years:

Year	Total Active S. S. Enrollment	Av. Attendance
1902	14,613	7,693
1907	17,941	9,071
1912	18,892	(not available)
1917	20,984	11,103
1922	21,748	12,425
1928	23,330	12,400
1932	23,084	14,054
1937	22,745	12,208
1939	21,121	11,547
1940	21,887	12,573
1941	21,715	11,998
1942	21,121	11,547

Thus Sunday-school enrollment and attendance are now declining. In our denomination in 1910 Sunday-school enrollment was almost 100,000 more than church membership. In 1941 our Sunday-school enrollment was 40,000 less than our church membership. With a decline in Sunday-school enrollment we are in danger of a declining church membership because 85% of our church membership comes through the Sunday school.

Only two out of five school age children in the United States are enrolled in Sunday School. Nearly twenty percent of all our crime is committed by youth under twenty-one years of age. Boys nineteen years of age commit more crimes than any other age group. And J. Edgar Hoover, head of the FBI, declares: "Crime among youth would become practically negligible if the young people of America attended Sunday School regularly during their formative years."

The program of Advance in which all United Brethren Sunday Schools are invited to engage during the next three years includes the following goals:

Enrollment

1. An annual increase in the enrollment of the Sunday School with special attention given to the Nursery and Home Departments.
2. An annual increase in the average attendance of the Sunday School.

Efficiency

3. Careful lesson preparation made each week by every teacher.
4. A Workers' Conference held regularly each month or each quarter.
5. Sunday-school literature secured from The Otterbein Press.

Evangelism

6. Planned visitation of the families of the church constituency at least annually.
7. Additions to the church from the Sunday School each year on profession of faith.

Enrichment

8. Well-planned worship for the Sunday School.
9. Regular attendance at the worship service of the church by the pupils, teachers, and officers.
10. One or more pupils enrolled annually in a standard leadership training class.

We hope every Sunday School in Miami Conference will enroll in the Sunday School Advance and learn that "Together we can grow Christian Americans for tomorrow's world."

Personnel of the Board for this year will be: Elected members: O. O. Arnold, 1943; W. N. Roberts, 1943; E. D. Bragg, 1943, vice president; Mrs. Robert Copeland, 1944; Mrs. E. R. Turner, 1944; J. B. Henry, 1945, president; M. B. Klepinger, 1945, treasurer. Ex-officio members: L. M. Hohn, Conference Superintendent; Mrs. Ruth Hendrix, Branch President, W. M. A.; Miss Ruth Hively, Branch Secretary, Otterbein Guild; Tony Martin, President Conference Otterbein Brotherhood; Mrs. Sarah Calihan, President Young People's Union. Directors: J. B. Henry, General Director; R. W. Tinsley, Director of Adult Work and Secretary of the Board; H. C. Hahn, Director of Young People's Work; Mrs. Will Hopkins, Director of Children's Work; Robert Copeland, Director of Leadership Training.

Respectfully submitted,
J. B. HENRY, President.

EXCERPTS OF LETTER FROM PUBLISHING AGENT TO MIAMI CONFERENCE

The Publishing Agent nor the Board of Trustees has not forgotten nor minimized the clear and definite claim of the retired Ministers, or the Widows of retired Ministers of our Church upon the Publishing House. The difficult situation has kept the House from carrying out this purpose but now the apparently impossible has been achieved. As an evidence of good faith and by authority of the Board of Trustees, we are making a distribution to the Annual Conferences of our Church in America in keeping with the stated purpose of the House and of the Church and based as hitherto upon the Conference membership.

Enclosed therefore you will find a check drawn in favor of the Treasurer of the Miami Conference to the amount of $336.00 to be distributed by said conference to the Ministers and Widows of the Conference entitled to the same.

Very Cordially Yours,
J. B. SHOWERS,
Publishing Agent.

Report No. 15

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

Jesus stood on the shore of Galilee, and looking upon tired, hungry fishermen who had been fishing all night, and who had taken nothing. These fishermen had washed their used nets and were ready for such refreshments as they had, then would seek rest.

Jesus spoke, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a draught." At once the captain fisherman replied, "We have toiled all the night and taken nothing, nevertheless at Thy command we will let down our nets," and when this was done, a great catch was taken. Immediately, Peter confessed with an expression of guilt, "Depart from me for I am a sinful man." After this confession, Jesus said, "Follow me and I will make you a fisher of men."

We, too, may become fishers of men, when and after we have made such confessions and have heard and responded to the call, "Launch Out." With our limited means and our fetish ways, and other such difficulties that make of us only shore fishermen, God calls "Launch Out."

Your committee on Evangelism asks you to check on the methods used during the past year. Wherein you have failed, try to find the cause of failure and then remedy the defect.

We recommend again the resolutions adopted one year ago, with a special mention and check up in District Rallies, using all material available for such gain that at least we may win some.

Respectfully,
LEWIS G. LUDWICK, Chairman
D. E. GILLESPIE,
WALTER SINKS,
HAROLD S. BROWN,
IRA CLARK.

Report No. 15A

GREETINGS FROM MIAMI BRANCH

Bishop Clippinger, Members of Miami Conference, Christian Friends:

I know it's customary to say "I'm happy to be here." Up to this point I could have said that, but honesty forbids that I say it at this moment.

However, I am glad to represent an organization that from its very inception has taken its marching orders from the Great Commander. I consider it a pleasant duty to express to you, the ministers of Miami Conference, who work so faithfully hand in hand with our local societies and our Otterbein Guild Chapters, our sincere determination to go forward and to bespeak your continued cooperation in carrying out the Great Commission to which you are likewise dedicated.

It has become trite to say "We are living in a day of rapid changes." Nothing seems the same today as it was yesterday. I heard of a man recently who said his daily prayer now is: "Give me this day my daily opinion and forgive me for the one I had yesterday." But the ideals of the Women's Missionary Society do not change, and to that constant goal and ideal we can anchor our faith and our energies in the present maelstrom of things that do change.

It is true that in many fields of endeavor in mission work, the way seems blocked at present, but we are confident that past accomplishments are not lost. We feel that these are the days to get ready for new opportunities that will open in the days to come when "this too shall have passed." We truly believe that "man's crisis is God's opportunity," that this is no time to idle and as one of our great mission-minded writers has expressed it, "This is not the twilight but the noontide in missions."

In West China we are told that they have very effectively placarded their cities and countless villages with the slogan "Resist Enemy—Build Nation." So we too need to hold steady, "Resist Enemy—Build the Kingdom of God" might well be our slogan. In our own churches, in our homes, even in our own hearts we need to be that steadying influence that holds faith, but goes forward. Perhaps Grace Noll Crowell has best expressed it for us in her poem, "Teach Us to Pray."

We do not know, dear Lord, just how to pray,
Through the strange, awful tumult of today.
Teach us again—we grow bewildered quite.
We do not know, dear Lord, how to pray aright,
Our tongues are heavy, and so slow to speak,
Give us the words for which we vainly seek.

Teach us to pray—we have been taught to love
And not to hate—O God, be mindful of
The turmoil of our days, the doubt, the fear;
Speak out, dear Lord, and let Thy voice be clear.
Help us to pray the prayer of thy dear Son:
"Father, forgive them," "May Thy will be done."
Give us thy far clear vision, Lord, today;
Give us thy wisdom—teach us how to pray.

Report No. 17

REPORT OF READING COURSE FACULTY

The Reading Course Faculty has held two meetings during the Conference year as a result of which the following report is presented:

The committee approved the following policy, which is to apply to all applicants appearing before it:

First: That we conform to the standards prescribed in the 1941 Discipline, page 66, section 4, paragraph 6;

Second: That in any case of the transfer of credits, they must be approved by the Bonebrake Seminary before being accepted by this committee;

Third: That exemption from examination by this committee shall be granted only to those who meet the above disciplinary standards.

With regard to the three men who have appeared before us we make the following recommendations:

That John Clippinger, having completed the first year in Bonebrake Seminary, be passed to the second year in the Reading Course;

That Charles Messmer, having completed the second year in Bonebrake Seminary, be passed to the third year in the Reading Course;

That C. S. Zimmerman, who is pursuing his college course in Earlham College, be retained in the first year. Mr. Zimmerman has read one of the books in the second year course; but it is the sense of this committee that he be encouraged to complete his college work before continuing the Reading Course.

Respectfully submitted,
EMERSON BRAGG, chairman,
PHILIP DEEVER, secretary,
ROBERT COPELAND,
E. H. DAILEY,
JOSEPH HENRY.

Respectfully submitted,
DR. L. M. HOHN,
REV. RALPH TINSLEY,
REV. ROY MILLER,
REV. JOE HENRY,
JOHN L. JONES,
Nominating Committee.

Report No. 19

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE RURAL CHURCH

Your Commission on the Rural Church recommends the following for your consideration and approval:

1. That all pastors and rural churches whole-heartedly cooperate in the Sunday School Advance program, following the leadership and suggestions of the Conference Board of Christian Education.
2. That rural pastors be urged to become better acquainted with their own communities by means of community surveys and other approved methods and that they follow up their community surveys with intensive occupation of the field.
3. That rural pastors read at least two books each year on specifically rural subjects.
4. That pastors be urged to live on their fields of labor. We believe that an absent pastor is only half a pastor. Churches should make it possible for their pastors to live on the field and pastors should make real sacrifices to do so. A pastor living in a city is not likely to maintain the rural viewpoint so essential to successful rural parish work.
5. That rural churches strive to pay a living wage to a pastor so that they may have full time service and that so far as possible the conference erect circuits which will be able to support a full time pastor.
6. That rural pastors and churches more diligently study the Christian attitude toward property with an especial attention to stewardship among rural people.
7. That the conference most urgently insist upon complete cooperation on the part of pastors with the program of the conference and of the respective districts. We urge that this item be called especially to the attention of the student and part-time pastors in the rural churches.
8. All the above recommendations are presented with the belief that their fulfillment will result in greater success in building the church and bringing success in the ultimate function of the church, that of evangelism.

Respectfully,
RURAL CHURCH COMMISSION

Report No. 20

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PASTOR'S SUCCESSOR'S RECORDS

We your committee on Pastor's Records have examined and audited the records submitted to us and wish to report the following:

Ninety-five records were submitted to committee;
Eighty-three were correct in every detail;

Four records were not submitted to the committee;
Nine reported less members than reported to the statistical secretary;
Five reported more in the Pastor's Record than to the statistical secretary;
Six were not numbered;
Four were not on official paper;
Six were not typed.

Recommendations

1. That all pastors use successor's records prescribed by the Discipline.
2. That each record be numbered consecutively.
3. That all pastors use the regulation paper for the Pastor's Record book.
4. That the name of the Church be typed upon the weekly attendance record supplied by the conference, be cut to the size of the official paper within the successor's record and that two holes be punched in the sheet making it part of the successor's record.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. NISWANDER,
H. P. SNAPP,
JOE QUICK,
WM. K. MESSMER,

Report No. 22

GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF A JUST AND DURABLE PEACE ADOPTED BY DELAWARE CONFERENCE

We Believe:
1. That moral law, no less than physical law, undergirds our world.
2. That all share in responsibility for the present evils.
3. That it is contrary to the moral order that nations in their dealings with one another should be motivated by a spirit of revenge and retaliation.

4. That the principle of cooperation and mutual concern, implicit in the moral order and essential to a just and durable peace, calls for a true community of nations.

5. That economic security is no less essential than political security to a just and durable peace.

6. That international machinery is required to facilitate the easing of such economic and political tensions as are inevitably recurrent in the world. That refusal to assent to needed change may be as immoral as the attempt by violent means to force such change.

7. That we seek autonomy for all subject and colonial peoples. Until that shall be realized, the task of colonial government is no longer one of exclusive national concern.

8. That military establishments should be internationally controlled and be made subject to law under the community of nations.

9. The rights and liberties of racial and religious minorities in all lands should be recognized and safeguarded.

10. That, in bringing international relations into conformity with the moral law, a very heavy responsibility devolves upon the United States.

11. That a supreme responsibility rests with the Church.

12. That, as Christian citizens, we must seek to translate our beliefs into practical realities and to create a public opinion which will insure that the United States shall play its full and essential part in the creation of a moral way of international living.

13. That the eternal God revealed in Christ is the Ruler of men and of nations and that His purpose in history will be realized.

Report No. 23

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOUNDARY AND FINANCE

Your committee on Boundary and Finance recommends the following:

1. That Miami Conference consist of one Superintendent's district.
2. That the conference be divided into five group leader districts.
3. That the conference elect a full time conference superintendent.
4. That the salary of the Conference Superintendent be $3,200.00 and house and he is to bear his own traveling expenses.
5. That the salary of the Recording Secretary be $100; of the Statistical Secretary $100, and the Treasurer $385.
6. That the Miami Conference Council of Administration shall consist of five district leaders, five lay associate district leaders, one of each to be appointed from each district by the Stationing Committee, the Bishop, the Conference Superintendent, the Conference Treasurer, the president of the Board of Christian Education, the president of the Miami Branch of the Women's Missionary Association, the president of Otterbein Brotherhood, the editor of the Miami Messenger, the members of the Board of Conference Trustees and four members at large to be appointed by the Stationing Committee.
7. That an offering be lifted each evening of the Annual Conference and at other times at the discretion of the Bishop for conference expenses.
8. That the Kurtz Scholarship at Otterbein College be granted to Rudolph Thomas.
9. That the Conference Council meet quarterly and at the call of the Bishop and the Conference Superintendent.
10. That each church be asked to pay an amount equal to 1% of the pastor's salary to be applied on Conference debt.
11. That a committee be appointed by the Bishop from the membership of the Conference Council to continue the study of the problem of small salaries.
12. That the $336 dividend from the Otterbein Press be distributed to the retired ministers and widows on the ratio of their present relief appropriations.

13. That the Benevolence quotas be as follows:

Report No. 24

REPORT OF THE POLICY COMMITTEE

The Policy Committee recommends that the following be the Policy of the Miami Conference for the year 1942-43:

A. Worship.

1. That the ministers and church officials exercise a faith that will develop a greater spiritual understanding of the teachings of of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
2. That every effort be made to improve the atmosphere, content and spirit of public worship, and to provide other activities which will help people use the Lord's Day constructively.
3. That as far as possible, every church cooperate in the plan of the Federal Council of Churches to observe October 4 as world-wide Communion Sunday, and that an offering be taken for human suffering abroad on this day, in harmony with our denominational program.
4. That ministers shall lead their people in a fitting observance of Labor Day Sunday, Race Relations Sunday and Temperance Sunday, in order that the people may be led to think with the mind of Christ on the important issues to be considered on these special days.
5. That all ministers be required to report Sunday School and worship attendance on the Monday following the last Sunday of each month, to the editor of "The Miami Messenger," who shall provide cards for every minister.
6. That the Conference Superintendent prepare a mimeographed blank for recording the weekly attendance in the various services, and that such blanks, properly filled out, shall become a part of the Successor's Record.

B. Christian Education.

1. That all churches use the booklets, "Faith in the Saving Gospel of Christ," and that a study class or some other method of consideration be given to the subject of "A Just and Durable Peace."
2. That the program suggested by the Conference Board of Christian Education be the Conference Christian Education program. This program to be promoted by the Directors of this Board.
3. That every church strive to have representatives at the Miami Conference Christian Education Institute to be held in the Germantown United Brethren Church, in Germantown, Ohio, September 26, 1942, and at other camps, conferences and retreats promoted by the Board of Christian Education.
4. That the Conference Board of Christian Education publish quarterly, in "The Miami Messenger," a list of books on various phases of church work, and that we also encourage ministers to use the circulating library of the Seminary.
5. That our conference and local churches cooperate with the Ohio Council of Churches and Religious Education, and with the county and city councils in promoting their program.
6. That we promote the use of United Brethren Literature, and that churches order all their material from the Otterbein Press.
7. That the Board of Christian Education, and the Trustees of the Conference go forward as rapidly as possible in securing and developing a permanent camp site.
8. That ministers and Young People's Directors direct young people to Otterbein College, and that they send to the college, the names and addresses of High School Juniors and Seniors who are considering attending college.

C. Finance.

1. That the Conference Benevolence goal be a full budget for the Conference, and each local church.
2. That each Church have a finance committee, an "Every Member Canvass," observe all special days with an educational emphasis, and where necessary to assure a full budget, take a special offering on these days.
3. That the regular monthly remittance of benevolence money reach the Conference Treasurer by Thursday noon following the last Sunday of the month.
4. That in the monthly benevolence reports in "The Miami Messenger," the churches be rated according to a plan mutually satisfactory to the Editor of "The Miami Messenger," and the Treasurer of the Conference.
5. That we accept the Denominational schedule for completing the Ministerial Pension fund by July 1, 1943.
6. Every charge employing a full-time minister shall be required to pay a minimum salary of $1,650.00 and house, that effort be made to pay in full each month, and that the Conference Superintendent instruct quarterly Conferences accordingly.
7. Every full-time minister receiving full-time salary and house shall give full time to his work.
8. That any minister who considers his salary inadequate shall apply to the Conference Board of Trustees for permission to supplement same.
9. That a Stewardship Study Class be held in each church.
10. That churches begin to promote the Christmas offering for the Otterbein Home, early in the Conference year, and that each church set as its goal a substantial increase in its gift. That we give full recognition to the Otterbein Home Auxiliary, giving to it a place in the organization of each local church.

D. The Ministry.

1. That we hold the highest standards for ourselves in regards to the ministry.
2. That all ministers attend the Conference sessions and District meetings.
3. That the Conference Superintendent instruct student ministers in the proper method of reporting on the various blanks provided. That in view of the fact, that student ministers are excused from Seminary classes to attend Conference and District Meetings, that students be faithful in attendance.
4. That we refrain from inviting students from other Conferences to join our Conference until their graduation from the Seminary and the presentation of their credentials.

E. Church Members.

1. That ministers and churches be more interested in saving church members to the Denomination and to the Kingdom than in merely holding on to names. That, therefore, the names and addresses of members moving into other communities be sent to a minister in the community to which they have gone.
2. That we put forth this year an earnest effort to transfer all non-resident members to a church in the community in which they live.
3. That we try, as soon as possible, to inaugurate a program of instruction for all persons before receiving them into church membership.

F. General.

1. That the report of the Evangelistic Commission be the program of Evangelism for this conference year. That this Commission give support to churches in their program of evangelism where ever possible.

2. That we look with favor upon the recommendation of the Conference Superintendent making Miami Conference ministers available for evangelistic service in Home Mission churches.
3. That all ministers shall preach next Sunday in pulpits to which they are assigned by this Conference.
4. That each local church and pastor use every available means of keeping in contact with our young men in the service of our Country, by providing them with Testaments where this is not already done by other accredited organizations, by correspondence, and that a community of fellowship be maintained between the congregation and our service men, and by the erection of some suitable roll of honor in our local churches.
5. That the names of our quarterly Conference licentiates be printed in the Conference minutes along with the churches to which they belong.

Respectfully submitted,
THE COMMITTEE

Report No. 25

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE REGISTRAR

The Conference Registrar presents the following report:

I. Itinerant Elders:

a. That the name of Stanley Forkner be placed with the Itinerant Elders.

b. That E. E. Burtner be added on transfer from Southeast Ohio Conference.

c. That C. Willard Fetter be added on receipt of transfer from Virginia Conference.

d. That Frank S. McEntire be added on transfer from Erie Conference.

II. Local Elders:

That Stanley Forkner be transferred from Local to Itinerant Elder.

III. Retired Elders:

No name to be added.

IV. Annual Conference Licentiates:

b. That Licentiates serving charges in the Conference be given permission to administer the sacraments.

c. These recommendations for classification follow the approved reports of the Conference Superintendent, the Reading Course Faculty and the Committee on Conference Relations.

Respectfully submitted,
R. B. DITMYER, Registrar

Report No. 26

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

In this one hundred and thirty-third session assembled, we, the members of the Miami Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, being sincerely thankful for the abiding presence and benefits of our heavenly Father and prayerfully seeking the guidance and inspiration of the Holy Spirit for the days of the year ahead of us, do, hereby, resolve:

1. That we acknowledge our deep appreciation to our good Bishop for his splendid leadership; his wise counsel, and inspiring messages throughout the Conference sessions.

2. That, with our recorded thanks for the fellowship and generalship of our efficient Conference Superintendent we pledge again to him our faith and cooperation for the new year.

3. That we express to Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Dailey and to the members of the Oakwood Church our thankfulness for the gracious entertainment provided for us.

4. That we express to the Dayton newspapers our appreciation for the fine publicity they have given, and to Harvey Hahn, our unofficial reporter, our sincere thanks for his good work.

5. That we give whole-hearted support to our denominational program with special emphasis on the Sunday School Advance Movement, and continue our support of those inter-denominational organizations and movements with which we are affiliated.

6. That we lend encouragement to the growing sentiment against the liquor traffic and its attendant evils, and that we cooperate with established organizations, both as individuals and churches, to stem its flow.

7. That we express our deep sympathy to war suffering peoples both in prayer and in giving generously of our means to their relief; and that we lend our influence to measures making for a just and durable peace after the war.

8. That each local church have an active "Men in Service Contact Committee" to work in conjunction with the pastor for the welfare of the men who have gone forth from our churches to serve our nation.

9. That we express to our visiting guest speakers our appreciation for the inspiration of their messages, also for those of our devotional speakers and those representing our general church work.

Respectfully submitted,
COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS
A. C. WITHAM, Chairman,
A. GLEN O'DELL, Secretary
MRS. VANCE CRIBBS,
MRS. H. L. BODA,
A. P. PEDEN.
